2. Benefit of Prior U.S. Application(s) (35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, or 121)

NOTE: If the new application being transmitted is a continuation, CIP or divisional, of a parent case, or where the parent case is an International Application which designated the U.S., or the benefit of a prior provisional application is claimed, then check the following item and complete section as follows.

☐ The new application being transmitted claims the benefit of prior U.S. application(s).

2.1 Relate Back

WARNING: If an application claims the benefit of the filing date of an earlier filed application under 35 U.S.C. 120, 121 or 365(c), the 20-year term of that application will be based upon the filing date of the earliest U.S. application that the application makes reference to under 35 U.S.C. 120, 121 or 365(c). (35 U.S.C. 154(a)(2) does not take into account, for the determination of the patent term, any application on which priority is claimed under 35 U.S.C. 119, 365(a) or 365(b).) For a CIP application, applicant should review whether any claim in the patent that will issue is supported by an earlier application and, if not, the applicant should consider canceling the reference to the earlier filed application. The term of a patent is not based on a claim-by-claim approach. See Notice of April 14, 1995, 60 Fed Reg. 20,195, at 20,205.

(complete the following, if applicable)

Amend the specification by inserting, before the first line, the following sentence:

☐ International Application_____ filed on_____ and which designated the U.S."

Note: The proper reference to a prior filed PCT application that entered the U.S. national phase is the U.S. serial number and the filing date of the PCT application that designated the U.S. Moreover, (1) Where the application being transmitted adds subject matter to the International Application, then the filing can be as a continuation-in-part or (2) if it is desired to do so for other reasons then the filing can be as a continuation.

☐ "The nonprovisional application designated above, namely application no._____, filed_____, claims the benefit of U.S. Provisional Application(s) No(s).:

{list application no(s). and filing date(s)}

B. 35 U.S.C. 119(e) (Provisional Application)

2.6 Petition for Suspension of Prosecution for the Time Necessary to File an Amendment
